Found a letter recd from the D.S. Bangalore, not recommending grant of permission to Mr. A.S. Raju Musht to resume publication of the "Chalana Chitra".

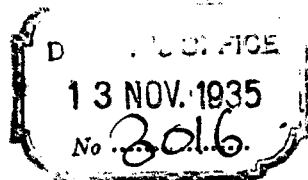

The reasons set forth in the report for not granting perm. to the applicant are as follows:

- (1) That the applicant, Mr. A.S. Raju Musht, has no experience in Journalism
- (2) That he has not got a good knowledge of English,
- (3) That he has no financial backing and
- (4) That he is closely associated with certain local "bucket shops".

Subd. for order.

In October 1933, one Mr. A.G. Raju Mudaliar of Bangalore applied for permission to edit, print and publish a weekly journal by name "Chalana Chitra" in Kannada. The permission asked for was granted, as the local officers reported that the character and antecedents of the applicant were good. After a few issues, the journal ceased publication from April 1934.

Mr. Raju Mudaliar has again applied for permission to resume publication of the journal as an English bi-weekly. He now wants to deal with news relating not only to the cinema but to all kinds of amusements, and sports. The District Magistrate, Bangalore, who was consulted in the matter, has reported that Mr. Raju Mudaliar has no journalistic experience, nor a good knowledge of English, and further that he is said to be closely connected with the local "Bucket-shops". In the circumstances, the District Magistrate is of opinion that the permission asked for should not be granted, and the Members of Council and I concur in this view.

Gracious approval is solicited to inform the applicant that the permission asked for by him to resume publication of the journal cannot be granted.

6, C. Street, Fort,

Bangalore City, 24th October 1935.

From

A. G. Raju Mudaliar,

Manager, Radha Press,

6, C. Street Fort, Bangalore City.

To

The Chief Secretary

to the Government of Mysore,

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to the permission so kindly granted to me by you to print, publish and edit the Kannada Weekly entitled the "Chalana Chitra" as per G.O. No. 1625-28/P.P.1-33-48 dated 25-11-1933, (copy enclosed for your reference), I beg to state that this weekly has ceased its publication since a year and a half owing to scanty circulation and consequent losses.

A careful scrutiny as to why it failed to catch the public fancy has revealed that the Reading Public wanted something extra and that in English in which language it can be published with facileness.

I beg to request you, therefore, to be so good as to renew the permission to edit, print and publish within the State of Mysore, "Chalana Chitra" now converted into biweekly journal (to be published on Tuesday and Friday) and to be issued in the English language. This newly converted journal will be mainly devoted to Cinema in particular and all kinds of Amusements, Pastimes and Sports in general, (such as Dramas, Cinemas, both silent and Talkie, Shows, Concerts, Musical parties and Variety entertainments etc). The journal will, on no account, deal with any political or religious matters. It will deal with only such matters as have a special bearing on either pastimes or sports. What with the keenness and interest that is being evinced by the Public in games, (st as Foot-ball, Hockey, Cricket, Tennis, Races, Polo, Golf and Badminton etc), Sports and Amusements, I believe, it is hardly necessary to add that this kind of journal is an absolute desideratum.

May I add, again, that by renewing the permission to publish the Chalana Chitra as an English biweekly as opposed to Kannada weekly you will be kindly helping me in recouping the very heavy losses I have already sustained by its previous publication.

Praying for the favour of an early order and thanking you in anticipation.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. Chari

With reference to your Memo No.J1.782/35-36 dated the 3rd instant, forwarding for report the letter from the Chief Secretary to Government regarding the application of Mr. A.G. Raju Mudaliar, manager of the Radha Press, for permission to resume publication of the "Chalana Chitra" and to convert the journal into an English Bi-weekly dealing with news relating to the cinema as well as all other kinds of amusements and sports, I have the honour to state that Mr. A.G. Raju Mudaliar was permitted to edit, print and publish a weekly journal styled "Chalana Chitra" in Notification No.1625-23/PP.1-33-49 dated 25-11-33. But he failed in his attempt and the publication of this Kannada weekly ceased from April 1934. Now he has applied for permission to edit an English weekly. In this connection I write to state that it is reported that Mr. Raju Mudaliar has no experience in journalism and has not got good knowledge of English.

The Radha Press of which he is at present the manager; has been shifted to C & M Station, and is owned by Mr. Sutram Das, who was financially helping Mr. Raju Mudaliar in publishing the Kannada Weekly "Chalana Chitra". Besides Mr. Raju Mudaliar is also reported to be closely connected with the local "Bucket Shops".

Under the circumstances, I am of opinion that the permission prayed for by Mr. Raju Mudaliar to edit, print and publish the English Bi-weekly styled "Chalana Chitra" may not be granted.

The original reference under advertance is herewith returned.
